INTENSIVE SPANISH COURSE IN CARTAGENA, SPAIN - 10h/week

Intensive Spanish courses for small groups with a completely customized content for each group and level, with a special focus on expression, communication and local culture. The courses also offer accommodation and nautical and cultural activities.

Classes are communicative and practical: the student learns in a participatory environment that encourages learning. Students must also work outside the classroom. The courses follow a clear progression in accordance with the levels established by the CEFR.

During the classes the students work the four skills in an integrated way: listening comprehension, reading comprehension, oral expression and written expression, in a dynamic and participative way. Endless possibilities to have fun and learn. Always in Spanish.
